

MICHAEL W. PIRTLE

CHAIR OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

The Omaha law firm of Gross & Welch is pleased to announce the election of Michael W. Pirtle as the Chair of the House of Delegates of the Nebraska State Bar Association for the 2007-2008 term. Mr. Pirtle has been active in the House of Delegates and other Bar Association committees since 1997 and has been a member of the Nebraska State Bar Association for 28 years. In addition to his position as Chair, he also serves as a referee on behalf of the Nebraska Supreme Court in attorney discipline cases and is a member of the Nebraska State Bar Association's Advisory Committee.

The House of Delegates is the governing body of the Nebraska State Bar Association, consisting of representatives that are elected by active association members for all 12 judicial districts in Nebraska. The Chair conducts all meetings held by the House of Delegates, and is also a member of the Executive Council.

Mr. Pirtle graduated from the University of Nebraska College of Law in 1978 and earned his Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from Midland Lutheran College in 1975. His practice is concentrated in the areas of civil litigation, mediation and insurance law.
